

The hour of 12 o'clock, noon, November 17, 1919, the day, date and hour set forth in the advertisement for bids for the State Printing for the General Assembly of 1920, for the opening of said bids, having arrived, the Board of Public Works, pursuant to said advertisement, met at the office of the State Treasurer at Annapolis, Maryland.

There were present Governor Emerson C. Harrington, President of said Board and Secretary of State George L. Radcliffe, Secretary thereof. The Governor, after communicating with the State Treasurer and the Comptroller of the Treasury, (the remaining members of the Board), opened all such bids received, in the presence of the bidders.

The following bids accompanied by the bond required by law, were received:

King Brothers,	$	28.000.00
Meyer & Thalheimer,		30.000.00
Annapolis Publishing Company,		29.985.00
Fleet, McGinley Company,		32.500.00
Thomas & Evans Printing Company,		29.450.00
Dulany-Vernay Company,		31.000.00

After again communicating with the absend members of the Board, it was decided that as all bids received exceeded the amount of $22.000.00, that being the amount appropriated by law for such printing, the same, and all of them, were rejected.

There being no further business before the meeting, upon motion, duly seconded and carried the Board adjourned.

Secretary.
